THE BAPTIST MINISTERS CONFERENCE NOTES.

There was a large attendance at the conference last Monday and the reports made by the pastors and ministers were very encouraging. Quite a lively interest was manifested in the Sunday school lesson as it was taught by Rev. J. C. Fields, A. B.

Dr. C. W. J. Boyd, of exas, one of the secretaries of the National Baptist convention was present and electrified the ministers with a flattering report on the outlook for all the work of the National Baptist Convention Unincorporated, during this convention year, and especially the outlook for the raising of $20,000.00 or $30,000.00 for the National Baptist Theological and Training Seminary. The ministers were jubilant when the Doctor said "All the churches visited by me in the last ten days in Virginia, N. C. and Georgia, voted to give from $500.00 to $1,200.00 for the Seminary at Norfolk, Va., September, 1919."

Following the remarks of Rev. Dickson, D. D. the conference appointed a committee to arrange a meeting to be known as a union National Home Mission mass meeting at which time the churches of the city will be asked to come together to hear this great man.

Rev. Dickson is the field secretary of the Home Mission Board. The committee met and decided to hold the meeting at the Tabernacle Baptist Church, Rev. H. M. Jones, Pastor on the second Sunday in January, at 3 p. m.

KNOXVILLE CHURCH ENDORSES PUBLISHING BOARD.
Knoxville, Tenn.—As evidence of the interest that they have in constructive ideals among Baptists, the Mt. Olive Baptist Church, situated on Patterson street of this city, passed resolutions last Sunday endorsing the National Baptist Publishing Board at Nashville, Tenn., under the secretaryship of Rev. R. H. Boyd. The congregation is pastored by Rev. E. H. Hamblin, D. D., and is fast coming into prominence as one of the foremost churches of Knoxville. While the congregation is young, and while they are struggling under some financial obligations, their leader seems to be well versed in denominational affairs, and his people are giving to the cause of the church a great rally to be pulled off in June, by which it is hoped to free the church of every encumbrance. Prominent ministers from throughout the state are to be in attendance.

LOOKING FOR ARDIS MITCHELL.
The manager of the Nashville Globe has just received a letter from Mr. Der Mitchell, R. No. 1, Box 23, Shreveport, Louisiana, in which he is making inquiry for his son, Ardis Mitchell. The last to father heard from the son he was stopping at Room 122, O'Clarend Y. M. C. A., this city, and he has not heard from him since last September.

RED CROSS NOTES.

Roll Call.
Red Cross Roll Call! Every grown-up in the country urged to become a member! The membership is needed by the payment of one dollar—but it is the membership that is chiefly wanted. If you offered a Roll Call worker five $10.00 members or ten $1.00 members, she would surely take the ten $1.00 members. Because this Roll Call is after members, members, members—every grown-up in the country a member, is the aim. To say nothing of Juniors! We are "summoned to comradeship"—and we are coming in, each one of us. Then we will be, each of us, a part of the great organization that, through war and on into peace, is working for the greatest good of the people, health and brotherhood and friendly helpfulness JOIN TODAY.

Red Cross Still at Work.

Wherever our soldiers and sailors may be, the Red Cross will stay with them until they are demobilized. Nothing which can be done, will be left undone either for the men in the war zone, for those returning, for those in the camps and hospitals or for their families at home. To these families at home the ministrations of the Red Cross Home Service will continue to be devoted. In the Home Service are 500,000 trained Red Cross workers in 2,500 different places throughout the land. And they, with all other departments of the Red Cross, will continue "right on the job." Everyone may be a member of the American Red Cross. What an opportunity! JOIN TODAY.

Canteen Workers Still Meeting Trains.

Trains of returning soldiers are still being met by the Canteen and service being rendered sick soldiers and others passing through the city. Plans are being made for the welcome home of our own soldiers.

MR. AND MRS. WEBB ENTERTAIN.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Webb entertained at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Rhody's sixteenth anniversary.
A two course menu was served. Those present were Miss Marie Dizard, Mrs. Eliza Hyman, Miss Lillie B. Hyman, Mr. Ralph Reams. Little Alberta Scruggs assisted the hostess.
Corp. Reynolds F. Winston from Camp Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Winston of Gallatin, Tenn., spent the holidays with home folks.

MR. JAMES EVERETTE GOES TO HIS REWARD.

James Everett was born June 1, 1879, and departed this life December 12, 1918, at 6:30 p. m., at the Tuberculosis Hospital. His body was conveyed to his brother's, 2518 Jefferson street, where funeral service was held Tuesday morning at 11:30 a. m. conducted by Rev. Henry Abner. He is survived by his mother, father, one daughter and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Mary Cato, Mrs. Florence Dozier, Mr. Henry Everette, Alfred Everette, Earl Everette, George Everette and John Everette, all of this city, and a host of friends whose sympathy goes out to the bereaved family in this their hour of sorrow and loss.

PRaises GLOBE VICTORY EDITION.

Special Assistant to Secretary of War Emmett J. Scott, of Washington, D. C., has just written to the Nashville Globe congratulating the month of the excellent edition of the paper of some weeks ago. Mr. Scott says: "I wish to congratulate you upon the splendid Victory Issue of the Nashville Globe under date of December 6th. It was full of information and matter relative to the manifold activities of the race and war work of the colored American was most brilliantly treated. From the viewpoint of literary excellence, typographical neatness and artistic arrangement, this special edition of the Globe takes rank with any that our people have yet produced. I am placed under additional and lasting obligations to you for your very generous and laudible review of the work I have tried to do for the race here in the War Department during my incumbency of something more than a year. It is through such support and encouragement you have given me that I have been able to achieve some of the results you have set out as worth while."
EMMETT J. SCOTT, Special Assistant, "SECRETARY OF WAR."
